

SCENIC DRIVE FESTIVAL

<http://showcase.netins.net/web/villages/fcraft.htm>

Held Annually 2nd full weekend of October

9:00 am Bonaparte Street Faire. Walk Main St. with Specialty Shops and a variety of arts, crafts & flea market vendors. Don't forget the Addie May Fudge Factory & Ol' Mill Antiques and The Olive Branch!

11:00 am Bentonsport National Historic District's Riverfest
Within the village you will discover most buildings are the original structures from the 1800's, and now are homes to a variety of specialty shops, including the Greef General Store, offering a broad spectrum of hand made gifts, from weaving to woodcarving and antiques. Also, witness working artisans, as a skilled blacksmith and potter demonstrate beautiful artistic creations in Iron & Lace. Here is where you will find the famous "Queen Anne's Lace Pottery". During this weekend the river bank is filled with Antique dealers and various Art vendors.

12:00 pm Lunch will be served by Tailgater Meats in the lower level of the Greef General Store in Bentonsport. Delicious BBQ meats, sides, desserts & drinks.

2:00 pm Keosauqua Festival of Colors. Spend the afternoon browsing through hundreds of arts, crafts & flea market vendors set-up throughout the downtown area.

Cost: $11.50 per person.

If Step-on Guide is desired add an additional $2.00
